Dear Alejandra,

Please see below the letter I just sent to the Chair of the ICANN Board. I have decided to step down from the ICANN Board, effective immediately. Due to personal reasons, I should allow a new board member selected from the ccNSO to take my seat. I wholeheartedly thank you, everyone on the Council and our ccNSO community, for all the incredible support I have felt all these years! I remain available to ensure a smooth transition and hope to be able to contribute to the work of the ccNSO in the future.

Kindest regards

] Katrina

To: Tripti Sinha, ICANN Board of Directors, Chair

Cc: Members of the ICANN Board of Directors
John Jeffrey, ICANN General Counsel and Secretary

Dear Tripti:

I am writing to hand in my resignation as a member of the Board of Directors at ICANN, effective immediately for personal reasons. After careful consideration I regretfully see no other option and need to step down to allow another nominee from the ccNSO to fully commit to this work.

I would like to express my sincerest appreciation for being allowed to serve on the ICANN Board. It has been one of the most valuable experiences in my professional life, and I am honoured to have been a part of the fantastic team of dedicated individuals of the Board members and staff. I was happy to serve the ICANN community and am proud of what we have accomplished during my tenure, and you will accomplish in the years to come.

I deeply apologise to the ccNSO community for my sudden departure, without providing a longer period to select another Board member and transition. I am confident that the ccNSO will select the best candidate to join the Board as soon as possible, and am committed to helping with a smooth transition.

Kindest regards
