1	2 problems: 1) sessions Imarked as acceptable appeared too high-level and/or" academic" to many ccTLDs not regularly involved in ccNSO 2) as usual, the language barrier posed a challenge: that is to say, if a New Zealander talks quite complex policy issues with a Briton, quite a number of non-native speakers are left out of the loop	6/14/2024 3:00 PM
2	All sessions were very good.	6/13/2024 12:19 PM

7	I think this session "ccTLDs & UN Sustainable Development Goals" was really relevant, inspiring and very eye-opening. I was specially impressed with the explanation that was given my the speaker Ana Neves around all the ongoing processes and working groups (particularly inside UN) dedicated to discussing IG and the digital environment. It's very important to have this type of insights explained in a very systematic way, because, sometimes, it can be a little bit challenging to see the big picture.	6/13/2024 12:44 PM
